Philippines: Hello. I'm very happy to meet you.

Japan: We're so excited to talk to you but feel a bit nervous.

P: There're two teachers here. (状況説明)

J: What's the weather in Philippines like?

P: Good. It's sunny. Now in summer. I like hot weather.

J: What's the temperature degree there?

P: 24 degree. How about in Japan?

J: It's a little chilly day, actually 8 degree.

P: Oh, I'll be frozen.

J: Now it's almost spring in Japan. Plum tree blossoms are beautiful. Are there four seasons in Philippines?

P: We have two seasons, rainy season and dry season.

J: I love mangos. When is its best season?

P: March and April. We could make you mango shake when you visit us.

J: Thank you!! Is the color of mangos yellow?

P: Yes. Yellow-color mangos are delicious.

J: Do you have Negros (ネグロス) bananas? I hear they're delicious.

P: Yes. They are so delicious. I eat them every morning.

J: What do you usually have for breakfast?

P: I have bread, milk, coffee.

J: We often have yogurt for breakfast.

P: You like fruits and yogurt, too. You're very health conscious.

What kind of breakfast do you like?

J: I like especially grated radish. We eat them with soy sauce.

J: What are the famous sight-seeing spots in Philippines?

P: There're many places. For example, Palawan(パラワン島) island which has the longest under-ground river. We can enjoy a lot of marine sports.

And also Bohol(ボホール島) island, where the smallest monkeys with big eyes live.

J: Are there many historical churches?

P: Yes. At Cebu or Manila. Some beautiful churches are registered as World Heritage Sites. What's your favorite heritage site in Japan?

J: Shirasagi-castle. It is so beautiful.

I have a question about the transportation. Do you have a subway?

P: We have Jeepneys. (ジブニー). We use them a lot.
